THE ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE OF REAL ESTATE

The economic importance of Real Estate, Appraisal of Real Estate, and Real Estate Loan Origination demands a high professional level with an increased emphasis on educational requirements. New Jersey requires licensure for all persons engaging professionally as a Real Estate Salesperson, Real Estate Broker, Real Estate Appraiser, Mortgage Loan Originators, and other Professionals.

Our programs are designed to help you attain your goal of passing your licensing exam(s) and to provide you with the practical knowledge you need to succeed.

EXPERIENCE: Since our inception in 1983, the American School of Business has established itself as a leader in providing quality education using only the best and most up-to-date materials available. Each year thousands of students are successfully prepared for careers in Real Estate, Insurance, Appraisal, Mortgage, and Financial Services. In addition, thousands more call on us to advance themselves through our seminars and designation programs.

ACCREDITATION: The American School of Business is licensed and/or approved by the New Jersey Real Estate Commission, The New Jersey State Board of Real Estate Appraisers, The New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance, The National Mortgage Licensing Service and The New Jersey State Board of Accountancy. We are also approved for the training of Veterans and their eligible dependents by the State Approving Agency.

GUARANTEE OF SATISFACTION: A prompt and regular attendance is vitally important to your success in our courses. Students who miss classes are allowed to make them up in any of our day, evening, or Saturday courses at any of our training centers. You are entitled to attend future classes FREE for a period of one year after your enrollment date. This includes taking your final exam.

INSTRUCTORS: Our Instructors are Successful, Experienced, and Motivated professionals who are licensed and/or approved to teach in the State of New Jersey.

SCHEDULING: Courses are offered Days, Evenings and on Saturdays at several convenient training centers throughout New Jersey. Most courses and seminars are also available online through our virtual university.

Continuing Education Requirements
Real Estate salespersons, broker-salespersons and brokers are required to complete 12 hours of CE per licensing cycle in order to renew their license for the next licensing cycle.

At least six of the 12 hours must be in the following core topics, of which each topic except ethics must have an ethics component relating to the topic.

The Core Topics are as follows: • Agency • Disclosure • Legal Issues (i.e. listing agreements, contracts, leases, attorney review) • Ethics • Fair Housing and New Jersey Law Against Discrimination • New Jersey Real Estate Broker and Salesperson Statutes and Regulations • State & Federal Environmental Laws and Regulations • Legal Requirements on Escrow Monies and Financial Recordkeeping

The following topics are deemed as approved for Elective Courses:
• Commercial Real Estate • Property Management • Seasonal Rentals • Real Estate Sales Full Disclosure Act and Real Estate Timeshare Act • Financing Land Use • Real Estate Valuation • Foreclosure and short-Sale Transactions • Specific Aspects of Residential Real Estate Transactions

Also, completion of the Broker pre-licensure course by real estate licensees will be equivalent to completing the 12 hours of CE for the licensing cycle in which the broker pre-licensure course is taken. Licensees completing this course will not be required to take any CE courses to fulfill the requirement.

Licensees initially licensed in the first year of a real estate licensing cycle will be required to complete CE requirements in order to relicense for the next cycle (i.e. a licensee who obtains their license before July 1, 2018 will be required to complete CE requirements to relicense for the cycle beginning July 1, 2019)

Licensees initially licensed in the second year of a real estate licensing cycle will not be required to complete any CE requirements in order to relicense for the next cycle (i.e. a licensee who obtains their license after July 1, 2018 will not be required to complete CE requirements to relicense for the cycle beginning July 1, 2019).

CE courses will only count for credit one time during each licensing cycle.

Additionally, the bill establishes Referral Agents as a new type of real estate licensee who is not subject to the continuing education requirements as long as the licensee stays within the limited service category.

The American School of Business has an array of continuing education classes and seminars that are offered at several training centers and on-line to provide you with the highest quality education.

3 hour CE Seminars are only $49 each,
6 hour CE Seminars are only $98 each,
or pick any 12 hour package for only $179!

Mortgage Licensing & Exam Preparation

Mortgage Lending is a profession that requires knowledge of many disciplines, including real estate, finance & appraising to be effective. Our courses are designed to give you the information you need to pass your licensing exam(s) and successfully enter the mortgage profession whether it be in sales, processing or underwriting.

Laws affecting mortgage industry were placed into effect in July 2009. The new laws require that mortgage professionals be licensed as Loan Originators in the State of New Jersey as well as many other states. The American School of Business is approved by the NMLS – National Mortgage Licensing System to provide the required instruction to qualify to take your National Exam. NMLS Approved Provider #1400050.

Note: Our course covers all of the requirements of the new UST – Uniform State Test which is accepted in most states.

The American School of Business is dedicated to providing programs that are designed to fulfill the current as well as any future educational requirements. We offer programs to fulfill all of your educational needs including classroom, onsite, and online training. For online training visit us on the web at www.americanschoolnj.com and check out our programs that are approved in several states.

We also suggest looking into our Real Estate Salespersons course as it will help establish a solid foundation for your new career.

Purpose of Continuing Education

The purpose of Continuing Education activities is to ensure that each mortgage professional participates in a program that maintains and increases his or her skill, knowledge and competency.

Requirements

Licensed Mortgage Loan Originators are required to complete twelve (12) hours of continuing education to renew their license every year. Some States require State Specific education to be part of the continuing education. New Jersey requires that two (2) hours of the above twelve (12) be State Specific. Please visit the NMLS web site for a complete state by state listing.

Annual CE education must include 3 hours of Federal law, 2 hours of ethics (which shall include fraud, consumer protection, and fair lending issues), and 2 hours of non-traditional mortgage lending. 3 hours of electives, plus 2 hours of NJ-specific education. Number of hours is 8+2+2 hrs of NJ law = 12 Hours of Continuing Education.

Please visit our website at www.AmericanSchoolNJ.com and see our complete list of approved online licensing and continuing education programs.
