Continuing Education
For Real Estate Licensees

To help you understand some of the requirements of the Continuing Educations laws in NJ, we encourage you to read the below.

Continuing Education Requirements
Real Estate salespersons, broker-salespersons and brokers are required to complete 12 hours of CE per licensing cycle in order to renew their license for the next licensing cycle.

At least six of the 12 hours must be in the following core topics, of which each topic except ethics must have an ethics component relating to the topic.

The Core Topics are as follows: ● Agency ● Disclosure ● Legal Issues (i.e. listing agreements, contracts, leases, attorney review) ● Ethics ● Fair Housing and New Jersey Law Against Discrimination ● New Jersey Real Estate Broker and Salesperson Statutes and Regulations ● State & Federal Environmental Laws and Regulations ● Legal Requirements on /Escrow Monies and Financial Recordkeeping

The following topics are deemed as approved for Elective Courses:
● Commercial Real Estate ● Property Management ● Seasonal Rentals ● Real Estate Sales Full Disclosure Act and Real Estate Timeshare Act ● Financing Land Use ● Real Estate Valuation ● Foreclosure and short-Sale Transactions ● Specific Aspects of Residential Real Estate Transactions

Also, completion of the Broker pre-licensure course by real estate licensees will be equivalent to completing the 12 hours of CE for the licensing cycle in which the broker pre-licensure course is taken. Licensees completing this course will not be required to take any CE courses to fulfill the requirement.

Licensees initially licensed in the first year of a real estate licensing cycle will be required to complete CE requirements in order to relicense for the next cycle (i.e. a licensee who obtains their license before July 1, 2018 will be required to complete CE requirements to relicense for the cycle beginning July 1, 2019)

Licensees initially licensed in the second year of a real estate licensing cycle will not be required to complete any CE requirements in order to relicense for the next cycle (i.e. a licensee who obtains their license after July 1, 2018 will not be required to complete CE requirements to relicense for the cycle beginning July 1, 2019).

CE courses will only count for credit one time during each licensing cycle.

Additionally, Referral Agents working for a Licensed Referral Company, may not be subject to the continuing education requirements as long as the licensee stays within the limited service category. See NJ License Laws for current requirements.

The American School of Business has an array of continuing education classes and seminars that are offered at several training centers and on-line to provide you with the highest quality education.

3 hour CE Seminars are only $49 each,
6 hour CE Seminars are only $98 each,
or pick any 12 hour package for only $179!

Online Seminars Topics include: ● Demystifying Real Estate Short Sales ● Foreclosures ● Agency Law ● Realtors Code of Ethics ● Settlement Procedures & Antitrust Laws ● Going Green ● Investment Analysis ● Fair Housing ● Environmental Issues ● Property Law ● Housing: Fairness for All

Don’t See a topic or location you want….Call us at 800-288-5154 to have one of our Approved CE instructors come right to your office!

Mortgage Lending is a profession that requires knowledge of many disciplines, including real estate, finance & appraising to be effective. Our courses are designed to give you the information you need to pass your licensing exam(s) and successfully enter the mortgage profession whether it be in sales, processing or underwriting.

Laws affecting mortgage industry were placed into effect in July 2009. The new laws require that mortgage professionals be licensed as Loan Originators in the State of New Jersey as well as many other states. The American School of Business is approved by the NMLS – National Mortgage Licensing System to provide the required instruction to qualify to take your National Exam. NMLS Approved Provider #1400050.

Note: Our course covers all of the requirements of the new UST – Uniform State Test which is accepted in most states.

The American School of Business is dedicated to providing programs that are designed to fulfill the current as well as any future educational requirements. We offer programs to fulfill all of your educational needs including classroom, onsite, and online training. For online training visit us on the web at www.americanschoolnj.com and check out our programs that are approved in several states.

We also suggest looking into our Real Estate Salespersons course as it will help establish a solid foundation for your new career.

2019 Mortgage & Loan Originators
Continuing Education
12 Hour NJ SAFE CE

PURPOSE OF CONTINUING EDUCATION
The Purpose of Continuing Education activities is to ensure that each mortgage professional participates in a program that maintains and increases his or her skill, knowledge and competency.

REQUIREMENTS
Licensed Mortgage Loan Originators are required to complete twelve (12) hours of continuing education to renew their license every year. Some States require State Specific education to be part of the continuing education. New Jersey requires that two (2) hours of the above twelve (12) be State Specific. Please visit the NMLS website for a complete state by state listing.

Annual CE education must include 3 hours of Federal law, 2 hours of ethics (which shall include fraud, consumer protection, and fair lending issues), and 2 hours of non-traditional mortgage lending, 3 hours of electives, plus 2 hours of NJ-specific education. Number of hours is 8+2+2 hrs of NJ law = 12 Hours of Continuing Education.

Please visit our website at www.AmericanSchoolNJ.com and see our complete list of approved online licensing and continuing education programs.

Seminars Offered
12 NJ SAFE Comprehensive CE Package: $189*
